An important compromise was Wednesday determined upon in the famous Black Bob Indian land case at Topeka, both sides agreeing to the payment to the Carney heirs of $8,250 an acre for 4,000 acres in Johnson county in the dispute regarding the title. This case has been in the United States court for twenty years.

Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms Syl Dixon served notice on Warden Chase of the penitentiary to appear in Topeka this week before the investigating committee and give some evidence with reference to charges made public and privately, concerning illegal practices in that institution. He was ordered to bring the books of the institution along with him.

Despite the statements of western Kansas members that no destitution exists in their localities and districts there are hundreds of applications coming in to Governor Morrill every day for relief. Governor Morrill turns over all appeals to the committee, consisting of Messrs. McDonald, Doran and Howe, and they have issued an address to the people of the state urging them to contribute to the relief of the destitute people.

Governor Morrill has announced that he would appoint his Adjutant General and Superintendent of Insurance early next week. He declines to say whom he would name, but it is conceded that either J. W. Moore, of Marion, or ex-Senator Hill P. Wilson, of Hayes City, will be made Superintendent of Insurance. The leading candidate for Adjutant General is Col. J. W. Hughes, who was court-martialed a year ago for refusing to obey Governor Leveillé's order to drive the "Douglass House" from Representative hall two years ago.

Conductor E. D. Sill, on a water train of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis railroad, fell under the moving train in Olathe while making a switch one day last week and was instantly killed. He was about forty years old and his home was in Auburn Park, Ill.

The Baptist church circles are all torn up in a church row. The church council in session last week recommended a change of pasture for Rev. L. A. Hall and virtually bounced him from the ministry so far as the Baptist church is concerned.

Norton Republican: A petition is in circulation asking the council to call an election to vote additional bonds to improve the water works. If there is anything that Norton people like better than bonds it is more bonds.

Last week in the midst of a raging snow storm the home of James Cowden, an aged farmer, living three miles from Reading, was burned. The wind quickly carried the flames to every part of the building and in a few minutes the family were homeless. Some of the household belongings were saved. Cowden is an old soldier and will probably receive aid from the post there.

Smith County Pioneer: It is with fear and trembling we watch this cutting down of names of town in Kansas by the federal powers. El Dorado was a pretty name, but Eldorado looks like a misfit; Rush Center was all right, but Rushcenter looks as though it had been set up by the devil and the proof reader had got drunk that night; Walnutgrove don't look as though it ever had a grove. But when they get to monkeying with the name of this fair town they will create a havoc. Smithcenter would drive all the trade to Athol and if they should cut off the last part of the name we would want to cut off the balance and go without any name. Please let us alone.

The diphtheria scare at Independence is over and the schools opened again this week.

The Smith County Journal says that there are now over 1,700 good teams of work horses in Smith county doing nothing and makes the good suggestion that they and their owners go to work improving the roads.

Colonel Richard Bonticou Morris, collector of internal revenue for Kansas is said to bear a striking resemblance to Rev. T. S. Hodgson, presiding elder of the Larned Methodist conference.

A WOMAN'S NERVES.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN TO WHOM NOISE WAS TORTURE.

Prostrated by the Least Excitement—Physicians baffled by Her Case.

[From the Gate City, Keokuk, Iowa.] Mrs. Helen Meyers, whose home is at 3515 Vernon avenue, Chicago, and whose visit to Keokuk, Ia., will long be remembered, was at one time afflicted with a nervous malady which at times drove her nearly to distraction. "Those terrible headaches are a thing of the past," she said the other day to a Gate City representative, "and there is quite a story in connection with it, too. My nervous system sustained a great shock some fifteen years ago, brought on, I believe, through too much worrying over family matters and then allowing my love for my books to get the better of my discretion where my health was concerned. Why, whenever my affairs at home did not go along just as I expected, I would invariably become prostrated from the excitement and I would consider myself fortunate indeed if the effects of the attack would not remain for a week. I was obliged to give up my pleasant home not far from the Lake Shore drive, because I could not stand the noise in that locality. I could find no relief in the country, and I was finally obliged to have my nervous system always on the point of explosion. To add to my misfortunes my complexion underwent a change and I looked so yellow and sallow that all was ashamed to venture from the house at all.

"Madam," said my doctor to me soon after an unusually severe attack of the malady, "unless you leave the city and seek some place of quiet, you will never recover." So I concluded I would visit my uncle, who lives in Dallas county, Iowa, and whose farm would surely be a good place for one in my pitiable condition. I picked up the Gate City one day and happened to come across an interesting recital of the recovery of some woman in New York state who was afflicted as I had been. This woman had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I thought that if Pink Pills cured that woman they might cure me, too. I began to take the pills according to directions and I began to feel better from the start. After I had taken several boxes of them I was ready to go back to Chicago. My nervousness was gone and my complexion was as fresh as that of any 16-year-old girl in Iowa, and Pink Pills to what put the color in my cheeks. No wonder I am in such high spirits and feel like a prize fighter. And no wonder I like to come to Keokuk, for if it had not been for Pink Pills I would not be alive now," laughingly concluded the lady.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine company, Schenectady, N. Y., for 60 cents per box, or six boxes for $3.50.

A Harlem Idyl.

She lived in a flat. She was tired out with house-cleaning; but, when the postman rang the bell, she left everything and ran down three flights of stairs to open the letter-box. Inside she found a paper circular, "How to Beautify Your Lawn!"

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctor pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills, 25c.

Taking Things Easy.

Missionary—My dear brother, I hope you endure the restraints that are placed upon you here in a manner imbued with both meekness and repentance.

Light-fingered Mike.—Oh, yes! I sitters takes 'ings as dey come.

The great beauty of the city flat is that it doesn't cost the tenant half his income to keep a lawn clipped.

263 BEE DANVERS YELLOW ONIONS Were grown by John L. Rath, East Saginaw, from one pound of seed. This tremendous yield, at the rate of 1,048 bushels per acre, Mr. Rath says was only possible because he used Salzer's seeds. We understand that Mr. Salzer's seeds are the earliest in the world, especially his beets, carrots, cabbage, cucumbers, onions, peas, corn, radishes, tomatoes, etc., and that he sells to market gardeners and farmers at lowest wholesale prices.

If You Will Cut This Out and Send It with $1 money order to the John A. Salzer Seed company, La Crosse, Wis., you will get free thirty-five packages earliest vegetable seeds and their wonderful catalogue, or for 13 cents in stamps a package above Price Danvers Onions and their catalogue free. The Reverse. "He got into financial straits, did he not?" "Worse than that. They were crooked."

A Pertinent Paragraph.

"Our country if right, should be kept right; if wrong should be put right," is a political maxim which paraphrased applies to other conditions of life, thus: our health if right, should be kept right; if wrong should be put right, especially in bodily ailments, such as pains and aches, which St. Jacobs Oil promptly cures. Many out of work should heed to give it a chance to cure and it will give them a chance to go to work cured. Another adage is: "he doeth best, who doeth well." Well, of course you want to be well from all sorts of aches, and the best thing to do is to use the great remedy. He who does so is doing well indeed.

In Darkest New York.

"Why do they always take a prisoner's money from him before locking him in a cell at the police station?" "So as to prevent him buying his way out."

Progress and Poverty. An inquiry into the cause of industrial depression and increase of want with increase of wealth. The Remedy. 350 pp.

One of the most important contributions yet made to economic literature. It is full of vital thought, written with earnestness and power, and is a work hard to lay down when once begun.—Popular Science Monthly.

"Progress and Poverty" is not merely the most original, the most striking and important contribution which political economy has yet received from America, but it is not too much to say that in these respects it has no equal. Since the publication of "The Wealth of Nations," by Adam Smith, a century ago, or, at least, since Malthus formulated his theory of population and Ricardo his theory of rent, a more aggressive, not to say audacious, book was never written.—New York Herald.

Social Problems. The N. Y. Sun says: "To those who read only for diversion we say: 'There is not a dry page in this book, nor is there a paragraph but will compel attention.'"
